Prayer Requests

There are leaders from the many language software teams meeting in Dallas March 28-30. Please pray for all the attendees' journeys. Also that this meeting would result in increased vision, efficiency, and cooperation between all our software teams.

The room I am renting is only available until August so I need to find more permanent housing soon. Please pray that the Lord would lead me in my search for a new place.

Continue steadfastly in prayer, being watchful in it with thanksgiving. At the same time, pray also for us, that God may open to us a door for the word... Colossians 4:2-3

Perspectives

As you might remember when I first moved to Dallas in July I took the Perspectives Leaders Intensive course.

The coursework was spread out longer than the 8 days of lecture but I finished it and I just received my certificate in the mail! I think I'll go find my college diploma and put this with it.

In all seriousness, Perspectives is a great ministry which seeks to give Christians both a broader view of world missions and a deeper understanding of the Biblical foundation for missions. I would encourage anyone who gets the chance to take the class.

I can't say I would recommend taking the intensive class unless you have no other way of fitting it in.

California!

Grace Church in San Luis Obispo invited me back to participate in this year's mission conference and I gladly took them up on it.

I enjoyed the opportunity to meet with many friends and supporters over the 8 days I spent on the central coast. Eight days wasn't enough to see everyone, but I gave it my best shot, and it was good to get the chance to tell people about the work that I'm doing in Dallas.

When I began to write this update, there were thunder storms in Dallas. While I lay awake and saw the brief flashes from the chain lightning illuminate my windows and waited for the surprisingly long rumblings of thunder it was one more reminder that San Luis Obispo isn't home anymore.

However, as I thought back to all the people who I got to tell about the work I was doing, and how clear it is that this is where God wants me right now, I can hardly call it a sacrifice.

It is good to be sure that you are where God wants you, and right now I know I am.
